2. Universal Acceptance (UA) and IDNs Satish Babu (ALAC)

- UA is crucial to enabling consumer choice online and achieving digital inclusivity for the 4.5 billion end-users and another billion who would join shortly

- To be impactful, the implementation of UA and IDNs should be truly universal and secure, and should provide a consistent user interface and experience to end-users. The UASG, as well as the EPDP on IDNs are presently working on these aspects.

- GAC and ALAC should explore joint activities in UA and IDNs:
  - ICANN is a starting point for demonstrating UA readiness, not just the website but also for internal and external workflows and email
  - Provide coordinated messaging, including participating jointly in sessions at IGF and other global forums
  - Support activities of the UA Day that is expected to materialize by Feb 2023
  - Help disseminate UA/IDN-related information such as:
    - The results of the IDN Survey that ALAC is currently implementing
    - The three-part survey that UA-Tech WG is planning, that will reach out to Developers, Business Leaders and Governments
